Eel Lake

In early October, Pat Allender and his friends from Corvallis and Salem went to Eel Lake for a respite from the smoke, and to swim. Here are some pictures taken by Pat Allender.

The "creature from the black lagoon" is emerging from Eel Lake! That is Ralph Mohr. Ralph says: I came out of the water after finishing my swim, and Pat's crew was standing on shore, ready to get in. "Where did they come from?" I wondered That's what Eel looks like at 9 AM and overcast. It was a fun day.
